1. To file a reasonable modification request, the attached complaint form should be completed and submitted.
2. All reasonable modification request must be submitted in writing. If the complainant is unable to write because of a disability and needs assistance in completing the form Agency staff will assist by taking the reasonable modification request by phone.
3. Schuyler Public Transit will begin an investigation within fifteen (15) working days of receipt of a written reasonable modification request.
4. Schuyler Public Transit will contact the complainant in writing no later than thirty (30) working days after receipt of a reasonable modification request. If the complainant fails to provide the requested information in a timely basis, Schuyler Public Transit shall administratively close the reasonable modification request.
5. Schuyler Public Transit shall complete the investigation within ninety (90) days or receipt of the reasonable modification request. If additional time for investigation is needed, the complainant will be contacted.
6. A written response will be prepared by Schuyler Public Transit, which will include a summary of why the request was denied or grants and recommended action. The complainant will have fifteen (15) working days from receipt of the response to appeal a denial. If no appeal is received, the reasonable modification request will be closed and no further action will be taken.

Complaint Appeals Process

A complainant, who is not satisfied with Schuyler Public Transit response to a complaint regarding a request for reasonable modification, has the right to appeal.

Schuyler Public Transit will review your appeal and respond within twenty-one (21) working days from the date of the appeals request.

The decision to allow or deny a request for reasonable modification will be based on information from the complainant and ADA regulations and exceptions to the rule. These exceptions are:

1. When the modification/accommodation would cause a direct threat to the health or safety of others;
2. Would result in a fundamental alteration of the service;
3. Would not actually be necessary in order for the individual with a disability to access the transportation entity's service; or
